UXBRIDGE QUILT STORIES WANTED!

Is the art of Quilting a part of your family's history?

Uxbridge Historical Centre is holding a Heritage Quilt Show, 'Quilts on Quaker Hill', from May 10th to 20th and we would like to include your family's quilting story as part of the exhibit.

We would like to know the story of someone in your family who quilted, including what and why they quilted, and any special memories that go along with the story. You may even have a story about one of the quilts in the museum collection. These are all stories that we would like to share with our visitors.

Stories you submit will be included in the exhibit for visitors to read along-side the heritage quilts. Your story can be from a few sentences, up to a full page, and we will gladly accept typed or handwritten submissions.

Send your email submissions to museum@town.uxbridge.on.ca, or by mail to Uxbridge Historical Centre, Box 1301, Uxbridge, ON L9P 1N5.
